NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF CHILD CARE PROFESSIONALS LAUNCHES PROFESSIONAL EDUCATION CENTER FOR ONLINE TRAINING

AUSTIN, Texas – March 7, 2006 – The National Association of Child Care Professionals (NACCP) launched a Professional Education Center today, providing online training for child care professionals across the country. Through a joint endeavor between NACCP, Advanced Systems Technology and Empowered Training Centre, over 2000 courses are available in the areas of Child Development, Human Capital Management, Empowered Training, Desktop Computer Skills and Business Management.

“We are so pleased to make this unprecedented training opportunity available to NACCP Members and other child care professionals,” said Sherry Workman, Executive Director/CEO of the National Association of Child Care Professionals. “Everyone wants training in their backyard, when it is convenient for them, and now it is! Child care leaders can have set training costs without having the unrelated training expenses and have the most highly qualified staff in the community!”

Over 2500 hours of training are available to Professional Education Center subscribers. Each subscriber will have unlimited access to courses through a low annual subscription fee. Upon course completion, certificates are immediately available with training hours and Continuing Education Units indicated. To sign up for the Professional Education Center, please visit www.naccp.org or call 512-301-5557 for more information.

About the National Association of Child Care Professionals

NACCP is the nation’s leader among associations serving child care owners, directors and administrators.
